Run multiple copies of the Cachet Software on laptop computers for selling directly from trucks, for outlets at Trade Shows or Sales Reps out on the road taking Orders.

Return to base at the end of day, plug into the network (or get on the internet), and with the click of a button synchronise your data with the home base system, and download all new Orders and Invoices.

Each truck may optionally run their own stock control.